

New EU Battery Regulation Proposal: Possible Implications on Job Roles & Skills

AGENDA

October, 22nd 2021
11:00-12:30 CET

WELCOME BY THE MODERATOR

11:00

Zdenek Petzl, Executive Director, Czech Automotive Industry Association

PRESENTATION OF THE ALBATTs PROJECT

11:05

Blueprints on skills in battery industry and automotive sector
Kari Valkama, Project Manager at Merinova and ALBATTs Work-Package Leader

EXPERTS PANEL

11:10

- Proposal for regulation: Key-objectives of the proposal and implications on jobs and skills
- OEM perspective: Possible bottlenecks for the future use of batteries and their recycling and implication for the skills in the future
- Suppliers/Value chain perspective: New challenges for the supply chain and drivers of change, jobs and skills predicted to appear in the future
- Opportunities for the Energy Sector: Opportunities for Second Use and drivers of change, jobs and skills predicted to appear in the future

- Amélie Sophie Salau, Environmental Policy Director, ACEA
- Simon Godwin, Delegate for European Government Affairs, BorgWarner Inc.
- Michelangelo Aveta, Advisor Electromobility & Energy Efficiency, EURELECTRIC
- Michiel Verbeeck, Consultant Consumer Centricity Technology, ELIA Group

DEBATE

12:10

Panelists & Audience

CLOSING REMARKS

12:25

Zdenek Petzl, Executive Director, Czech Automotive Industry Association