

Servicing of electric vehicles: Future qualifications needed

AGENDA

September, 29th 2021
10:00-11:30 CET

WELCOME BY THE MODERATOR

10:00

EU's policy in the automotive sector - developing policies and strategies related to electric vehicles

James Copping, DG GROW, European Commission

PRESENTATION OF THE ALBATTs PROJECT

10:05

Blueprints on skills in battery industry and automotive sector

Jakub Štolfa, ALBATTs Project WP Supervisor and DRIVES Project Coordinator

EXPERTS PANEL

10:10

- What are the necessary measures to handle electrification in repair workshops?
- What are the challenges of the transition, the difficulties of adapting the network to the new technology, the efficiency of upskilling/reskilling vs. training of new specialists?
- How do training providers answer industry needs?

- Bernard Lycke, Director General at CECRA (European Council for Motor Trades and Repairs)
- Sjoerd Zijlstra, Director of Studies & Training Development, Centre for Vocational Training in the Automotive and Related Sectors Belgium
- Hanna Persson, Solution Architect HV Batteries at Volvo Cars
- Krzysztof Burda, President of Polish Chamber of E-mobility Development Association (International Academy Driving Change Together)
- Rafał Biszczyński, Director of the PIRE Knowledge Hub, Poland
- Daniel Brown, Manager, Electric Vehicle Training and Educational Technology Expert, Lucas-Nülle Academy, Germany

DEBATE

11:00

Panelists & Audience

CLOSING REMARKS

11:20

James Copping, DG GROW, European Commission